TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETING

There is often confusion over Translation and Interpreting.

Put simply, translation is the written word and interpreting is the spoken word. If you need documents in a different language, then you will be looking for translation. If you are in a meeting or conference, you will need an interpreter.

TRANSLATION

To stand out from the crowd, translating your website and marketing material is an excellent start.

- ★ We can translate from and into all world languages.
- ★ We use qualified, experienced translators who undergo test translations before undertaking any work for us.
- ★ Translators only translate into their mother tongue.
- ★ Any type of document can be undertaken, from websites, to contracts to marketing materials.
- ★ Your document will be closely matched to a translator specialist in that particular area.
- ★ We work over the weekend, turning your document around in as short a time as possible.
- ★ Free, no obligation quotes available.

INTERPRETING

Ensuring understanding is critical in today's multicultural and multilingual society. An interpreter can help you to overcome these language barriers and facilitate effective communication.

Languages available:

- ★ Polish
- ★ Mandarin
- ★ French
- ★ Bengali
- ★ Russian
